December 2007

Message from our Chapter Directors :

It seems strange that we are on the brink of saying goodbye to year 2007. Halloween just zipped right by and I think we even celebrated Thanksgiving. I know that because this is my December message. Thanksgiving is in November and that was last month so Thanksgiving must have come and gone. Seriously though, we did have those holidays and, ready or not, we are well on our way to recording Christmas 2007. For many of us, the year is ending much too quickly. It sure doesn't seem like a year has pretty much passed, but it has. In reality, time isn't passing any faster than it ever has...it just seems that way. With our busy lives time can sometimes get away from us. That bike tune-up or oil change you've been putting off and just never got around to doing; or maybe that set of tires you've been thinking about getting and know you need; or perhaps it's that skills refresher course or that First Aid/CPR-AED certification or re-certification you need, but just never got around to scheduling. My point is, time can just slip right by and sometimes you never get done what you need to do.

Last month, I reminded you that as we all begin to prepare for the holiday season and wind down our 2007 ride calendar, that we should take a moment to contemplate what we as a Chapter have accomplished this past ride season. We accomplished several important milestones. Since we have those recollection juices flowing, take a moment to also re-assess those things in your motorcycle life that you've been putting off and need to accomplish and get them scheduled.

Sheila and I are excited about what we as a Chapter have accomplished this year. For 2008, we will do our best to be the Chapter "spark plugs" to keep things moving, but, as always, we can't do it alone...we need your help and participation. The 2008 Ride Calendar is now published on the Chapter website for your review and reference. Look it over and start planning on participating as much as you can. For this next year, Chapter membership will grow and so will we as a Chapter!

Sheila and I would like to take this opportunity to wish each and every one of you, and your families, a very special Christmas Holiday. Also, we want to thank you for your support and continued participation in Chapter E.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to all!

"Ride Often - Ride Safe",

GWRRA NEWS

2008 Washington District Rally: Scheduled for Lynden, WA., July 17th—20th

The Rally theme is “Family Reunion”, however. in lieu of the district selling official rally tee shirts as in past years, for this rally there will a tee shirt contest between District Chapters. Each chapter will design their own shirt, keep their design secret, then attending chapters will wear them for judging on the night of the “Family BBQ”.

For Chapter E, all of you “creative individuals” start brainstorming ideas and stay tuned for more information on a special work group to come up with our very own design.

Keeping Your Membership Information Current

Last month I posted this reminder notice of the importance of keeping your membership information and your membership current. GWRRA in the past was pretty consistent in trying to keep members current. However, the task became overwhelming. Today, members have been assigned the responsibility to keep their own information current, even if they never received an “official” notice of that responsibility. GWRRA doesn’t mail out reminders that your membership is going to expire, and they aren’t going to come looking for you if your mail fails to get delivered to the right address. You’ll miss the Wing World Magazine for sure... heck, that’s the reason some people joined GWRRA – just to get the magazine. And beside Chapter E will miss you!

So, what are your responsibilities as a member? What do you need to do to keep your contact information current? What do you do if your email address changes; if you move; or if you change your phone number? You need to tell GWRRA. And how do you do it? Well, there’s the “old fashioned way”, and then there’s the internet way. The old fashioned way is to pick up a phone and call (800) 843-9460. You can fax to (623) 581-3844 or email them at: customerservice@gwrra.org. You can also log on to the internet, and go to www.gwrra.org where you’ll see this link to “Manage Your Membership”. The point is you have to keep your information current.

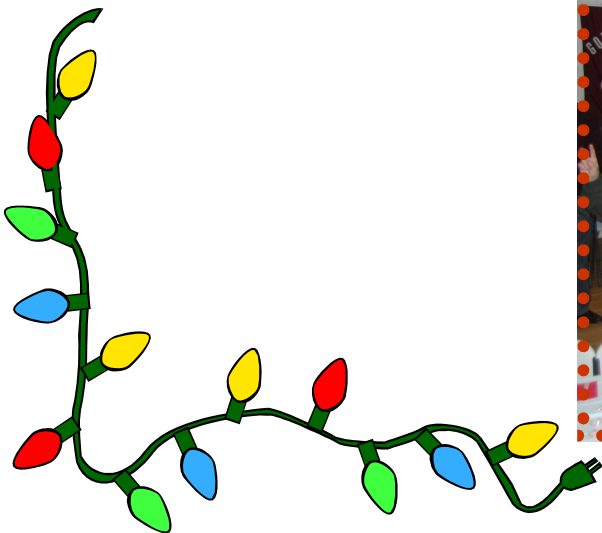

On May 14, 2007, Melissa Nordeoff, GWRRA Executive Director, issued an email stating “Member Updates: ... effective immediately, we will no longer be accepting any updates to a Member's record from anyone except the Member. We have had many circumstances where the information given to us was the wrong information. The Members must update their own information on line, by phone, email, or snail mail. A few might feel that they are being inconvenience but we really are trying to make sure their private information is secure and accurate.”

What we have been asked to do by Roy McKenzie, Region I Director and Mike Hudnell, District Director is to try our best to keep our own member lists as current as possible. Starting with the Chapter meeting on December 15th I intend to do my best to try and do that. This will help to keep our email distribution lists and addresses and phone numbers current. But, again local notification does not affect or update the national membership lists. Only you can keep your information current.

So let’s make an effort to get on this and get your information current if something has changed, or get your membership paid up if you have an expired membership. Also, don’t miss a single issue of the Wing World. Don’t miss being included in the Gold Book (or opt-out if you don’t want to be in the Gold Book). Don’t miss one minute of the fun of being a GWRRA member because your address was wrong or your phone number was out of date. Sign on, log-in, and keep your membership information current. Then be sure and let me know so I won’t continue to bug you!

December 2, 2007 Christmas Party: Although the awful weather made it very difficult for many of you to attend, the 2007 Chapter Christmas Party was a blast for those that were able to make it! It was good food and fellowship for the afternoon and into the early evening. Complete with a Christmas Poem reading to a beautiful group of "Chapter Children" from yours truly and a visit from Santa Claus it was a wonderful gathering. See Santa's letter to Chapter E.

Chapter E 2007 Christmas Party

By Santa

Hello boys and girls! This is Santa! Thank you for inviting me to your Christmas party. Santa always likes coming to a Gold Wingers party because he knows he's not going home hungry! The ribs' chicken and sausage were great, along with all those delicious side dishes that you all brought. Santa is very conscious of his full figure and made sure to sample every dish there.

It sure was fun to see all of you again this year and especially you lovely ladies. Santa's not used to seeing all of you in your pajamas and he nearly had a heart attack! All of you are usually tucked in your beds fast asleep when I get there on Christmas. Santa enjoyed watching the gift exchange. You all had so much fun choosing, opening and stealing each others gifts and when the gift wars were over it appeared that everyone was happy with the gift they ended up with.

After the gift exchange it was desert time and Santa made sure he was at the front of the line. We ended the evening with a game of "Left Right Center" (with quarters) and there were two winners this year, Jim Roberson and Barb Smith. After Santa helped many of us clean up the hall, He waddled out the door at about 8:00 p.m. to find that his reindeer had left his over weight butt behind.

As we loaded our cars in the dark, with no light. We could hear Santa in his mini van. Merry Christmas urp...to all..urp..and to all urp...a good night...Hey Mrs. Santa, "I need a Pepcid"!

Great Stories of Great Events

Great Figgy Pudding Street Corner Caroling Contest at Westlake Center

by Dave Chavez

Seattle's homegrown family event gave it another run last Friday, December 7, 2007. It was cold but Sheila and I and Bob and Patty bundled up and decided we would check it out. The Seattle Figgy Pudding Caroling Competition, Stage Show, and Community Sing-A-Long benefits the good work of the Pike Market Senior Center and Downtown Food Bank...providing year around emergency food, employment, social services and compassionate care to thousands of low-income and homeless seniors and individuals in downtown Seattle. Hundreds of carolers in dozens of teams come from near and far to compete in this annual Street Corner Caroling Competition. Judges oversee several categories, including most original -- the sillier, the better -- people's choice, best choral and 'Figlanthropy' (most money raised). What singers lack in talent, they make up with enthusiasm and costuming. In any given year they tell me, you'll see the usual church choirs, elves, Christmas trees, Santa clones and vintage Victorians. This year, we saw some pretty creative carolers, including some odes to our very own Governor and a couple of popular Senators! We don't know how the contest turned out but we had fun just walking around and giving them a listen. And in case you're wondering, the event's name comes from the lyric "Bring us a figgy pudding and a cup of good cheer" in the song, 'We Wish You a Merry Christmas.' It was definitely worth braving the cold.

Jingle Bell Run & Walk

December 9, 2007

by Dave Chavez

Sheila and I, Bob and Patty and Rick and Sue Gustin bravely represented Chapter E at the 23rd Annual Jingle Bell Run & Walk last Sunday at much too early in the morning, especially considering it's December! I have to admit that I had to keep telling myself that it was for a good cause...it actually started snowing as we lined up for the 3-mile course! Moments before the hard-core runners lined up in earnest for the dash down 5th Ave. to the North, we heard the announcer say there were over 11,000 people participating in the event! It always amazes me the level of enthusiasm that some people can muster up. Here we were all bundled up against the cold, while there were runners and walkers fully decorated as "running Christmas presents", Santa's elves, runners dressed up in various Christmas paraphernalia...even Jack Frost!

Okay, so you're wondering...did we run or walk? Let's just say we set a blistering pace moving down the course as fast as our Winger's legs could carry us. We didn't set any land speed records but we completed the course with Rick, Bob and me finishing just ahead of the closing Patty, Sheila and Sue! Course we didn't tell them we were going to bolt for the finish line as we all ambled along down the stretch! It's possible that we might have caught 'em by surprise!

Rider Education

Put a "Boring Farkle" at the Top of your Holiday List (with apologies to Karla)

I suspect you have started to put together your Holiday Wish list; and it's a pretty safe bet there are some Sparkle Farkle items on it. So when you are compiling the list, why don't you top it with a "Boring Farkle" that may help save someone's life; a Portable Bike First Aid Kit.

Yeah, I know it isn't very cool looking and you really don't ever want to use it, but what if . . . you are on a ride and someone goes down, wouldn't you want to help? I think the answer is yes.

As many of you know, there is something in the medical field called the "Golden Hour." Boiled down, it means that if a person, who suffered a trauma, is stabilized and transported to a hospital within 60 minutes, their survival rate approaches 90%. Longer than that and the survival rate reduces rapidly to the extent that after eight hours the survival rate is about 25%. Be the person that takes the first steps to help get the victim to the hospital in that Golden Hour. Get a first aid kit for every bike you have and carry it with you at all times and take the training that will be offered on January 20, 2008 in Marysville.

Heaven forbid you ever have to use your "Boring Farkle", but when you do, you will glad you put the First Aid Kit at the top of your list . . . Thanks and Ride Safer.

Shortly after the Pope had apologized to the Jewish people for the treatment of Jews by the Catholic Church over the years, Ariel Sharon, then Prime Minister of Israel, sent a proposal to the College of Cardinals for a friendly game of golf to be played between the two leaders, or their representatives, to demonstrate the friendship and ecumenical spirit shared by the Catholics and the Jews.

The Pope met his College of Cardinals to discuss the proposal.

"Your Holiness" said one of the Cardinals, "Mr. Sharon wants to challenge you to a game of golf to show that you are old and unable to compete. I am afraid that this would tarnish our image in the world".

The Pope thought about this and, since he had never held a golf club in his life, asked, "Don't we have a Cardinal to represent me?"

"None who plays golf very well," a Cardinal replied. "But there is a man named Jack Nicklaus, an American golfer, who is a devout Catholic. We could offer to make him a Cardinal, and then ask him to play Mr. Sharon as your personal representative. In addition to showing our spirit of co-operation, we will also win the match."

Everyone agreed that this was a great idea. The call was made. Of course, Nicklaus was honored and he agreed to play as a representative of the Pope.

The day after the match, Nicklaus reported to the Vatican to inform the Pope of the result. "This is Cardinal Nicklaus. I have some good news and some bad news, your Holiness," said the golfer.

"Tell me the good news, Cardinal Nicklaus", said the Pope.

"Well, Your Holiness, I don't like to brag, but even though I have played some terrific rounds in my life, this was the best I have played, by far. I must have been inspired from above. My drives were long and true, my irons were accurate and purposeful, and my putting was perfect. With all due respect, my play was truly miraculous."

"How can there be bad news?" the Pope asked.

Nicklaus sighed, "I lost by three strokes to Rabbi Tiger Woods.
