

You might be a SQUID (Super Quick Until I Die) if

You might be a SQUID if your riding is reckless or excessive for the conditions

You might be a SQUID if you wear shorts, tee shirts, street shoes instead of appropriate riding gear (DOT helmet, Long Sleeved jacket, full-fingered gloves sturdy long pants and boots)

You might be a SQUID if your helmet proudly displays that six-dollar “DOT” sticker on it you got at the last rally you attended.

You might be a SQUID if you regularly do a California rolling stop and then accelerate rapidly approaching the redline at every shift.

You might be a SQUID if you consistently enter a curve too quickly and can't keep your bike in your lane.

You might be a SQUID if you ride above the speed limit most of the time with no reason.

You might be a SQUID if you ride as a squid swims, directionless and oblivious.

Are you a SQUID? I'm just asking. And my deepest apologies to Jeff Foxworthy
